

TELLICO VILLAGE BADMINTON CLUB
LOUDON, TN
The Election Process of the Tellico Village Badminton Club

Elections are held for Executive Committee positions for the Tellico Village Badminton Club every two years with the term running from July 1 to June 30. The nomination process is by self-nomination only and is open to one individual per household. Five days will be allowed for members to submit their name to run for office. Any member in good financial standing with the TVBC will have the opportunity to submit his/her name by e-mail to tellicobadmi@gmail.com. Each nominee will receive acknowledgement from the Executive Committee by e-mail no later than twenty-four hours after the nomination is received.

Once the nomination process closes, the list of candidates running for election will be e-mailed to each nominee. A link will be provided in the email for access to the document describing the process the Executive Committee uses for working together to make decisions and a link to obtain officer job descriptions. From the close of the nomination process, no changes to the ballot are permitted with the exception of each candidate being permitted to withdraw his/her own name. Each candidate will have twenty-four hours to remove his/her name from the ballot if they desire.

The membership will be notified if no election is necessary. If an election is necessary, the membership will receive voting instructions by e-mail with the list of candidates running for election. Five days will be allowed for members to submit their votes. Those named to accept and count votes will be decided by majority Executive Committee Vote.

The Executive Committee will announce the results of the election. The transition process will be from the time the election process ends until June 30. The newly elected E.C. will begin service on July 1.
